THE UNITED STATES MOTION TO UNSEAL CRIMINAL SUPERSEDING
INDICTMENT

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through United States Attorney Nicholas J. Ganjei, and Anibal Alaniz, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of Texas, and moves this Court to unseal the criminal Superseding Indictment as to defendant Jose Enrique Martinez Flores. As alleged, Martinez Flores is a high ranking TdA member who is a Plaza Boss in Bogota, Colombia, and is part of the inner circle of TdA leadership. Further, Martinez Flores is responsible for coordinating shipments of cocaine from Colombia to the U.S. on behalf of TdA, a designated Foreign Terrorist Organization, and uses the money from his drug trafficking enterprise to further TdA's goals. Martinez Flores was recently arrested by Colombian law enforcement pursuant to a provisional arrest warrant in Colombia, and he is now pending extradition. As such, there is no reason for this case to remain under seal and the United States moves to unseal.

Respectfully submitted,

Nicholas J. Ganjei
United States Attorney
